SIMUN XVI

Saint Ignatius Model United Nations

Chicago, IL

November 4, 2017

Dear Delegates,

Welcome to SIMUN XVI! I hope you're as excited as I am for the conference. In lieu of a background guide due to the nature of the ad hoc, there will only be this letter, seeing as it's a no-prep, emergency-style committee. I'm your chair for Ad Hoc, Delaney Coyne, and I am a junior at Saint Ignatius. I've done MUN for three years now, and serve as an executive board member on the SIMUN team. Personally, I've always found dynamic crisis committees particularly enthralling, and I hope to bring this kind of committee to SIMUN in ad hoc. It will be fast-paced, crisis heavy, and thrive off delegates' creativity and hard work. The topic will remain a secret until you enter committee, so you don't have to do any prep or write position papers. Just come in with an open mind! You'll benefit much more from the ability to think on your toes than any research. Whether this be your first or thirtieth committee, I am so excited to welcome you to Saint Ignatius' conference, and I hope that you enjoy it and feel challenged while coming up with creative solutions to complex and multifaceted issues. My email is delaney.coyne@students.ignatius.org, which can be used to contact me at any time before committee. Both myself or my vice chair, Tom Kennedy, are happy to answer any questions or tribulations before or during committee and hope to give you a phenomenal experience in the Ad-Hoc Committee of the Secretary-General. Can't wait to see you there!

All the Best,

Delaney Coyne
